Key Information

Charges
You are responsible for and must pay for any loss or damage which CCE may incur in respect of: (a) any damage to the Equipment, whatever caused it, except fair wear and tear; (b) the loss or replacement of any Equipment of the same type, on a new for old basis, if the Equipment is destroyed, damaged beyond economic repair, lost or stolen; and (c) any liability to a person or damage to property caused by the Equipment or by the Hirer using the Equipment (clause 7). You may also be required to pay the costs of maintaining, repairing and moving the Equipment.

On termination: (i) Any arrears of rent, (ii) the costs incurred by CCE in taking the Equipment away, and (iii) if the Minimum Hire Period has not ended, the Early Termination Charge being either £ per month or part month remaining of the Minimum Hire Period where the Equipment is zero rental (rent free), or the balance of the rental payments due up to the end of the Minimum Hire Period where the Equipment is Rental (bears a rental charge).

MISSING PAYMENTS

Missing payments could have serious consequences and may make obtaining credit more difficult.

IMPORTANT - READ THIS CAREFULLY TO FIND OUT ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS

The Consumer Credit Act 1974 lays down certain requirements for your protection which should have been complied with when this agreement was made. If they have not been complied with, you may not enforce this agreement without getting a court order. The Act also gives you certain rights. You can end this agreement by writing to the person you make your payments to and giving at least one month's notice. In order to do this the agreement must have been allowed to run for at least 18 months though this notice period may be shorter. You will have to make all payments and pay any amounts you owe until the date the agreement comes to an end. If you would like to know more about your rights under the Act, contact either your local Trading Standards Department or the Citizens' Advice Bureau.
